Read the extracts and answer the questions: (10)

Walt was a complex man. To the writers, producers and animators who worked with him, he was a genius who had an uncanny ability to add an extra stroke of imagination to any story or idea. To the millions of people who watched his TV show, he was a warm, kindly personality, bringing fun and pleasure into their homes. To the bankers who financed us, I'm sure he seemed like a wild man, hellbent for bankruptcy. To me, he was my amazing kid brother, full of impractical dreams that he made come true.

19. What do the writers and publishers think about Walt?

20. The bankers think that Walt _____.

My brother and I were at a very young, impressionable age when our father married a second time. He would often arrogantly parade into the house with his new wife. Mother was helpless. There was nothing she could do about it, but Nani fought with her, and scooped the two of us into her arms and brought us into her house, saying, 'You want to rot here, do so ... But I am not letting my grandchildren stay here to get thrashed by their stepmother.'

21. What was the reason behind leaving of his father at early age?

22. Why did Nani take us to her home?

When tasks and pressures start building up, the mind can sometimes go into over thinking and you come to the thought, "I wish there was a switch in my head that I could flick and turn off all the thoughts going around in my mind!" It is not that easy. There is a technique to help yourself during the problem of over thinking. Say to yourself repeatedly during the day: 'I have no expectations and I will deal with whatever happens when it happens'.

23. What should be there in our head to overcome stress?

24. Which thing you will say to yourself to reduce pressure?

Will the workers walk into this trap? Will they be fooled again? I am afraid so. The people have always been susceptible to oratory of this sort. The workers know they have no enemies except their masters. They know that their citizenship papers are no warrant for the safety of their wives and children. They know that honest sweat, persistent toil and years of struggle bring them nothing on to, worth fighting for. Yet deep down in their foolish hearts they believe them a country. Oh blind vanity of slaves!

25. Who are the great enemies of workers?

26. What did they get in return to believe themselves a country?

And now an amazing thing happened. The ants at the top began climbing down in to the pit backward, each holding the tail end of another ant in front. In this way an ant-chain was soon formed which slowly dropped down the steep side. When it reached the ants waiting with their loads, they easily climbed up the chain and came out at the top. Such behaviour, showing the adeptness of ants, has been noticed and studied by many.

27. Any type of occupation needs skills. (Replace the underlined word with a word from the passage.)

28. Rewrite the correct sentence.

- The ants hold the mouth of the other ants to form a chain,
- The ants hold tails of the other ants and climb up the pit.
- The ants hold tails of the other ants to form a chain.

• Write any two short notes focusing on the questions: (Question no. 29 & 30)

Read the following passages and answer the questions: (05)

For last several years, I have been talking about my freedom. I remember the day when you objected to my dress and hair. That day you appeared to me like an 'evil dictators' (absolute rulers), who would never understand my style, my personality. The next day, you did not allow me to go out. I was fiercely-angry on you. We were on opposite sides and there seemed no meeting grounds. Now, when I recall this incident, I also remember how you appreciated my choice when we had to buy a gift for Asmi. I also recall how after getting angry on me for the bad report card for a few hours, both of you came into my room and explained what I should do to score more marks. I have both the types of memory but now I would prefer to remember the best. The little and big mishaps between us were just thoughtless reactions.

Questions :

34. On which bases did the writer think that his parents did not understand his style?
35. Give an example which shows positive side of the writer's parents?
36. Which type of memory did the writer keep with him for his growth?

By the time I reached high school, I was so stressed out by the thought of answering question and doing group projects that my self-confidence problem would get in the way of my ability to study. I was nervous and agitated about being wrong and how people would react to me. My school and work started to suffer. Because of my inferiority complex, I couldn't go out. I was afraid of even going for shopping, I couldn't speak to people or make decisions: I hid myself away and felt like a real loser.

Questions :

37. What problems did the narrator feel when he reached high school?
38. How did narrator's inferiority complex stop his growth?

39. Read the following passage and write its summary. Suggest a suitable title to it: (05)

Orphaned (lost his parents) at a very young age, Salim Ali was brought by his maternal uncle. As a child Salim was given an expensive air gun as a present and spent all his time shooting sparrows around the house. One day he noticed that one of the sparrows he had shot at had a yellow throat. He couldn't hold his curiosity and approached his uncle. His uncle who was equally clueless took him to the Bombay Natural History Society in the hope of finding an answer. There, the honorary secretary, W.S. Millard told him that the bird was the Yellow Throated Sparrow. Millard also told him about the variety of sparrows. That day Salim decided that he was going to be an ornithologist. No one would have imagined that the bird shooter would become a bird lover and nature conservator one day !!

"Mission Shakti": India's first anti-satellite missile system that destroyed a LEO satellite

NEW DELHI : Giving an "important message", Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Wednesday announced that India has successfully tested its first anti-satellite missile system, code-named 'Mission Shakti.' "India has entered its name as an elite space power. An anti-satellite weapon ASAT, successfully targeted a live satellite on a low earth orbit (LEO)," P.M. Modi said.

The Prime Minister also stated that shooting down a LEO satellite is a rare achievement and was completed successfully within three minutes of launch. The mission was led by the Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO), aimed at strengthening India's overall security. The LEO satellite was orbiting at an altitude of 300 km. P.M. Modi said.

The Prime Minister also said that India's action was not directed against any country and no international laws or treaties were breached. The mission was a highly complex one and was conducted at extremely high speed with remarkable precision, P.M. Modi said. It shows outstanding scientists and the success of our space programme, he added.
